Preface

The aim of secondary education is to make the learners fit for entry into higher education by flourishing their latent talents and prospects with a view to building the nation with the spirit of the Language Movement and the Liberation War. To make the learners skilled and competent citizens of the country based on the economic, social, cultural and environmental settings is also an important issue of secondary education.

The textbooks of secondary level have been written and compiled according to the revised curriculum 2012 in accordance with the aims and objectives of National Education Policy-2010. Contents and presentations of the textbooks have been selected according to the moral and humanistic values of Bengali tradition and culture and the spirit of Liberation War 1971 ensuring equal dignity for all irrespective of caste and creed of different religions and sex.

The present government is committed to ensure the successful implementation of Vision 2021. Honorable Prime Minister, Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, Sheikh Hasina expressed her firm determination to make the country free from illiteracy and instructed the concerned authority to give free textbooks to every student of the country. National Curriculum and Textbook Board started to distribute textbooks free of cost since 2010 according to her instruction.

In the era of globalization, English is one of the most powerful tools for pursuing higher studies, using technology, inter-cultural and inter-personal communications, and job markets at home and abroad. The curriculum makes it explicit that language learning will be graded and contents will reflect real life situations as the ultimate purpose of language learning is to communicate. The English for Today textbooks have been developed to help students attain competency in all four language skills, i.e. listening, speaking, reading and writing. The contents and illustrations of this textbook have been developed in order to suit the learners' age and cognitive level.

The textbooks introduced for secondary level have been modified according to the need of Madrasah education for Dakhil level from academic year 2015. I thank sincerely all for their intellectual labour who were involved in the process of revision, writing, editing, art and design of the textbook.

Lesson 1

Going to a new madrasah

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- read and understand texts
- talk about people, places and familiar objects in short and simple sentences
- write short paragraphs

A Tamim has moved to a new city with his parents. He is going to a new madrasah and his new teacher has given him the following form to fill out. His teacher wants to know more about Tamim.

Read the form and see what Tamim has written about himself.

1. My name is Tamim Chowdhury.
2. I am 11 years old.
3. I have brown eyes, brown hair, and I am 4 feet, 3 inches tall.
4. I am good at playing football and drawing.
5. My hobbies are collecting stamps and reading.
6. I like to read comic books and eat peanuts.
7. I really don't like any kind of soft drinks.

A1 Now write down similar information about yourself.

1. My name is _____.
2. I am _____ years old.
3. I have _____ eyes, _____ hair, and I am _____ , _____ tall.
4. I am good at _____ and _____.
5. My hobbies are _____ and _____.
6. I like to _____ and _____.
7. I really don't like _____.

B Read the following passage about Tamim first day in the new madrasah.

My first day at the new madrasah was interesting. I was going to madrasah with my father in a rickshaw. We reached madrasah after fifteen minutes. My father said good bye and left me at the madrasah gate. I went in and found that everyone had gone to class. I walked into my classroom and found a seat. After sometime a teacher came and warmly greeted us. I found the students very friendly in my new class.

B1 Choose the right answer :

The passage is about

- a who took Tamim to school the first day.
- b how Tamim felt on the first day in madrasah and why he felt so.
- c what happened in the madrasah on the first day.

- B2 Match a word from Column A with a word (or words) from Column B that has (or have) similar meaning.

Column A	Column B
interesting	lovingly
frightened	amusing
happy	afraid
excited	glad
warmly	thrilled

- B3 Talk about your first day in madrasah and how you felt - happy, frightened, thrilled or shy. Work in groups.
- B4 Now write a paragraph on how you felt on your first day at madrasah and why you felt so.
- C Read the following poem and end this lesson with fun and laughter.

Let's Play

- Kate Greenaway

School is over,
 Oh, what fun!
 Lessons finished,
 Play begun.
 Who'll run fastest,
 You or I?
 Who'll laugh loudest?
 Let us try.

- C1 Notice the use of punctuation marks in the poem. Why are the exclamation marks (!), the question marks (?), and the full stops (.) used in these places?

Lesson 2

Congratulations! Well done!

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- ask and answer questions
- read and understand written instructions
- participate in short dialogues and conversations on familiar topics

A We often use some routine expressions in our everyday conversations. Read the following conversations and see some of the different ways in which we can respond to a good or bad news.

i) Bithi's elder brother Babul goes to a college in Dhaka. Bithi and her parents live in a small town in Tangail district. Babul is talking to his father over telephone.

Babul : Hello, Dad!

Dad : Babul? How are you?

Babul : Fine, Dad. I just got my exam result. I've got an A in my English test!

Dad : Well done, son! I'm so proud of you!

Babul : Thanks, Dad. By the way I have to go now. I'll call you again.

Dad : Bye, son. Take care.

Babul : You too, Dad. Bye!

ii) Rahul is a good singer. He loves to sing Islami songs and is quite popular with the young generation. His new album has just come out.

Nina : Hello, Rahul! You look very happy today!

- Rahul : I am happy. I just heard that my new album of Kazi Nazrul Islam's Hamd and Nath songs has been a hit!
- Nina : Oh, great! Congratulations!
- Rahul : Thanks, Nina. I can't tell you how happy I am!

iii) Manzoor is a student of class six in a Madrasah in Rajbari. Recently there was an inter-school essay competition on the occasion of our Independence Day. Manzoor had participated and got a prize.

- Raj : Hello, Manzoor! What's the matter?
You look excited!
- Manzoor : You remember the competition, I took part?
- Raj : Yes, I do. What happened?
- Manzoor : I am happy that I've won the competition!
In fact, I've won the first prize!
- Raj : Oh, that's marvelous! congratulation!
- Manzoor : Thanks, Raj.

Language Focus

When we are glad or happy to hear about any good news, we usually express our happiness with these expressions: Congratulations! Well done! That's marvelous! That's wonderful! Great!, etc. In return the other person usually says, 'Thanks' or 'Thank you'.

- A1 Discuss with your friends the meanings of: generation, album, hit as they have been used in the conversations above.

The words album and hit can be used in more than one meaning. Discuss in groups and see if you can guess the other meanings.

- A2 Practise the conversations above in pairs.

B Let's now see what we say when we hear about something not good or not happy. Read the following dialogues.

- i) Monir : Hi, Sujan! Why didn't you come to madrasah last week?
 Sujan : I had the flu. I was in bed most of the time.
 Monir : Oh, I'm sorry to hear that. How do you feel now?
- ii) Shakil : Hello, Manik! Why are you so quiet today?
 Manik : Did you see that pen my father gave me? I've lost it. It was very dear to me!
 Shakil : Oh, I'm so sorry! How did you lose it?
 Manik : I don't know! I think I dropped it somewhere.
- iii) Shanu : Hi, Munira! Have you seen the result?
 Munira : Yes. I've failed in my math test.
 Shanu : Oh, that's bad luck!
 Munira : I don't know how to tell my parents.
 Shanu : I think they will understand.
 I know you'll do better next time.

Language Focus

When we hear about any bad news or not so good news, we say, 'I'm sorry to hear that' or 'That's hard luck' or 'That's bad luck', etc. In response the other person usually doesn't say anything.

B1 Practise saying the above conversations in pairs.

B2 Answer the following questions.

What would you say to somebody who:

- a has won a lottery?
- b has lost a football match?
- c has just congratulated you on your good result?
- d has been ill?
- e has been selected for a music programme on TV?

B3 Work with a partner. Make short conversations on the situations given in B2.

Lesson 3

At a railway station

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- talk about people, places and familiar objects in short and simple sentences
- read and understand texts

A Read the following passage.

My friend Sajjad and I were sitting at the railway station. I came to see him off. Sajjad was going to Dhaka to his elder sister's house. It was very crowded in the station. There was a long line of people at the ticket counter. A woman was standing in the queue. She was holding her child's hand tightly. A group of young people was talking loudly and drinking tea in front of a tea stall. An old couple was trying to find a quiet place to sit down and rest. The waiting room was crowded, too. I saw one man who was trying to carry three heavy suitcases. A young lady was sitting on a bench with her luggage at one corner. She was reading a magazine.

My friend and I stood near a newspaper stall talking and watching the crowd around. Soon my friend's train started to leave. As the train whistled, he picked up his suitcase and we said goodbye to each other.

A1 Talk about what the speaker saw and did at the railway station. Use your own words.

A2 Match a word from Column A with a word in Column B that has an opposite meaning. One is done for you.

Column A	Column B
see off	light
long	busy quiet	receive
heavy	drop
pick up	short

- A3 Look at the picture below. Talk about what things you see and what are happening.

- A4 Suppose you went to one of the places listed below. Describe what you saw, what were happening and what you did there.

- i) A shopping place
- ii) A bus station
- iii) A fair

Lesson

4

Where are you from?

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- recognize word and stress on words in sentences
- talk about people, places and familiar objects in short and simple sentences
- ask and answer questions

It is natural that when two persons meet they would continue their conversation. They may want to know where the other comes from, or what the other person does and so on. Here are some conversations in such everyday situations.

A Listen to and then practise the conversations below with your class friends.

i) Mamun and his friend Akash have gone to a book fair. A lot of people have also come. They are all talking, laughing and buying books. Mamun introduces Akash to someone. Because of the noise around, Akash cannot hear his name.

Mamun : Akash, I'd like you to meet

Akash : Hello! My name is Akash. I'm sorry, I couldn't catch your name.

The stranger : James. James Collins. Nice to meet you.

Akash : Nice to meet you, too. Where are you from, James?

James : I'm from England.

A1 Imagine that you are at a bus/railway station. A friend introduces you to somebody. You couldn't hear his name properly for the sound around. Now make a conversation among you, your friend and the new person.

ii) Sometimes the same questions can be asked in a different way. Here is a conversation between an Immigration officer and a passenger at the Shahjalal International Airport, Dhaka. Listen to the conversation first and then practise it with a partner.

- Officer : Your name, Sir?
 Passenger : Robert Smith.
 Officer : Where do you come from, Mr. Smith?
 Passenger : Australia.
 Officer : And where are you coming from now?
 Passenger : I'm coming from London.
 Officer : Welcome to Bangladesh, Sir. Have a nice stay.
 Passenger : Thank you.

A2 In the above conversation the officer asks the passenger first time "Where do you come from?" and again he asks the passenger "And where are you coming from now?" Why?

iii) It's the first day in the new class after the annual exam. The boy sitting next to Rahim is a new student. Listen to and practise the conversation below.

- Rahim : Hello! I'm Rahim. I'm the class captain.
 New student : Hi! My name is Sajed.
 Rahim : Where do you come from, Sajed?
 Sajed : I'm from Sylhet. My father got transferred here. That's why I'm here in Khulna.
 Rahim : Well, I'm sure you will like Khulna and your new school.

Sajed : I know I will. Will you be my friend?
 Rahim : I'm already your friend!

A3 Rahim asks Sajed "Where do you come from, Sajed?" What could Rahim ask him instead?

iv) Mamun and Akash are talking about Mamun's cousin Ruma. Listen to and practise the conversation in pairs.

Akash : What does your cousin do, Mamun?

Mamun : She is an architect. She mostly designs offices and shopping complexes.

Akash : What is she doing at the moment?

Mamun : Well, at the moment she is designing something different. She is designing a school building at the outskirts of Dhaka.

v) Tahmina and her mother are sitting in their living room. Tahmina's mother Rabeya Begum is watching TV and Tahmina is reading a story book. Their neighbour's little boy is crying at the top of his voice.

Rabeya : I just don't understand! That boy is screaming so much! What's his mother doing?

Tahmina : I don't think she is at home. May be she is issuing out books to someone at the moment.

Rabeya : Why, what does she do?

Tahmina : She works part-time at the Town Hall Library.

- A4 Listen to the conversation between Akash and Mamun, and between Rabeya and Tahmina again. What difference do you find in the questions "what is she doing at the moment?" and "what does she do?"

Language Focus

Notice that sometimes the answer to "Where do you come from?" or "Where are you from?" is the name of the country one belongs to. But when both the speakers are from the same country, the question would obviously mean what part of the country one belongs to.

Notice the difference between "What do you do?" and "What are you doing?" "What do you do?" means the same as 'What's your profession?' On the other hand, 'What are you doing' refers to what you are doing at the moment, or to something you are doing around that time.

- B Look at the pictures below. Ask and answer questions about what each person's profession is, and what he or she is doing at the moment.

Follow this model:

What's his/her name? What does he/she do?

What is he/she doing now?

At the moment he/she is _____.

He/she is not _____. (not doing what he/she usually does, e.g. He is not seeing a patient)

Captain Harun, Pilot

Nadia Sultana, Student

Rashid Ahmed, Doctor

Shumana Chowdhury, Lawyer

Lesson 5

Thanks for your work

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- talk about people, places and familiar objects in short and simple sentences
- ask and answer questions
- participate in short dialogues and conversations on familiar topics
- read and understand texts
- write short paragraphs

A Look and say. Use suitable words from the box to describe the occupation of each person below.

newspaper hawker

nurse

cleaner

rickshaw-puller

waiter

postman

A1 Choose appropriate words from the box to complete the dialogue below. Then act out the dialogue in pairs.

letters	restaurant	streets	place	morning
---------	------------	---------	-------	---------

- A : What does a cleaner do?
 B : A cleaner cleans our houses, office and etc.
 A : What does a newspaper hawker do?
 B : A hawker gives us newspapers every
 A : What does a postman do?
 B : A postman delivers and other items to us.
 A : What does a rickshaw puller do?
 B : A rickshaw puller takes us from one to another.
 A : What does a waiter do?
 B : A waiter serves food at the

B Read the text about Bulbul and answer the questions below.

Bulbul collects rubbish from the Sankar area in Dhaka. Every morning, he wakes up at 5 o'clock and walks along the streets of Sankar to collect rubbish. People of Sankar put their rubbish in plastic bins and leave them in front of their houses. Bulbul walks from door to door to collect them. Sometimes the bins are very dirty and they smell bad. But Bulbul does not mind. He takes out everything from the bins and puts them in his van. He believes that all jobs are important. He works hard every day to keep this area clean.

Last month Bulbul was sick for two days. So, he could not come to collect the rubbish. The people of Sankar were in great trouble. They got piles of rubbish waiting in front of their houses. The whole area became dirty and unhygienic. When Bulbul got well, he came back to Sanker. He collected everything from all the bins. Bulbul does not want to fall sick again. He realises, if he stops working even for a few days only, the whole area will turn into a big dustbin.

B1 Now, ask and answer the questions in pairs.

- a) What time does Bulbul wake up?
- b) Where do the people of Sankar put their rubbish?
- c) Why does Bulbul think that all jobs are important?
- d) What happened when Bulbul became sick?
- e) What will happen if Bulbul falls sick again?
- f) What will you say to Bulbul, if you meet him?

B2 Think of a person who helps you live well. Write a composition on this person. Now answer the following questions.

- a) What does he/she do?
- b) What time does he/she start his/her work?
- c) How does he/she do the work?
- d) Does he/she like the job? Why/why not?
- e) What will happen if he/she stops working?
- f) What do you think about his/her job?

Language Focus:

Notice the verbs in the italics in the following sentences.

- a) Bulbul collects rubbish from the Sankar area in Dhaka
- b) Every day he wakes up at 5 o'clock and walks along the streets of Sankar.

We talk about usual routines in simple present tense. In simple present tense, the verb takes an 's' or 'es' if the subject is any one person/he/she etc.

Notice the verbs in the following sentences in italics.

- a) The people in Sankar area became very upset.
- b) They got piles of rubbish waiting outside their house.

All the sentences here talk about the past. So, they are in simple past tense. In simple past tense, the verb is always in its past form (e.g. got, became, etc.).

B3 Underline all the verbs in text on Bulbul (B). Write down the past form of the verb in the present tense. Also write down the present form of the verb in the past tense.

One is done for you.

wakes up—————woke up.

Lesson

6

It smells good!

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- ask and answer questions
- participate in short dialogues and conversations on familiar topics

A Read the passage and the dialogue below.

It's Saturday. Abir's madrasah is open. But Friday and Saturday are father's weekly holidays. Father sometimes loves to cook special dishes for everybody on Saturdays. It's 2 o'clock - time for Abir to come back from madrasah. Mother is setting the table. Abir's two younger sisters are playing in the living room. The doorbell rings. Abir comes in.

Abir : Hi, Mom! I'm back!
Where's Dad?

Mom : In the kitchen. Today is Saturday, remember?

Abir : Right! Dad's cooking day! Hi, Dad! What are you cooking today? It smells good!

Dad : It's 'moragpolau', dear, your favourite dish.

Abir : Can I try some?

Dad : No, you can't. You know the rule, don't you?
Go and wash your hands first.

Abir : Please, Dad. I'm coming soon.

Dad : Ok. Here is your dish.

Abir : Ummm! It tastes so delicious!

A1 Work with a partner. Ask and answer the following questions.

- a. What's your favourite food?
- b. Where do you usually have it?
- c. Who prepares it?
- d. How does it taste?

A2 Practise the conversation in section A with a friend. Remember to use proper stress and intonation (up and down movement of your voice).A3 Fill in the blanks in the following sentences with the words in the box.

smell	see	look	know	like	want
-------	-----	------	------	------	------

- a. I _____ him very well.
- b. The new dress _____ great!
- c. Rina _____ to collect stamps.
- d. I can _____ a butterfly near the flowers.
- e. The flower _____ sweet.
- f. Murad _____ to buy a dictionary.

A4 Read the passage below and choose which verb form is appropriate. Underline the word you choose.

Shikha Banu works/is working as a waitress in a restaurant in Chittagong. She takes orders and serves food to customers. But today, the chief cook has suddenly fallen ill. So, she helps /is helping the other cooks in the kitchen. She makes /is making 'pudding'. She thinks/is thinking of her son, Priyam. How he loves/is loving pudding! She wants/is wanting to make a pudding for Priyam when she goes back home today. Suddenly she hears/is hearing someone says, "The pudding is done, apa. Shall I take it off the oven?" With a start Shikha Banu says/is saying "Oh, yes. Please do."

Lesson 7

Holding Hands

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- recognize word and stress on words in sentences
- recognize intonation in sentences
- understand and enjoy stories and poems

A Listen and read.

Holding Hands

-Leonore M Link

Elephants walking
 Along the trails
 Are holding hands
 By holding tails
 Trunks and tails
 Are handy things
 When elephants walk
 In Circus rings.
 And when they walk
 It never fails

They're holding hands
 By holding tails.

A1 Recite the poem in groups, in pairs and then individually.

- A2 Look at the following words.
Each word has more than one meaning. The meaning in which a word has been used in the poem is given. Can you think of any other meaning or meanings?

Trunk : The long nose of an elephant

Ring : A round confined area in which animals or people perform or compete. There are seats around the outside of the ring for the audience.

For example : a circus ring or a boxing ring.

- A3 Now match the words above with the picture below.

- A4 Can you make sentences with the words.

Lesson 8

Grocery shopping

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- use word stress and stress on words in sentences
- ask and answer questions
- participate in short dialogues and conversations on familiar topics
- read and understand texts

A Some guests will visit Imran's house tonight. So Imran's mother will cook dinner for them. She asks Imran to go to the local market. He often forgets to buy the necessary items. So his mother is making a shopping list for him. He is helping his mother make the list.

Read the conversation between the mother and son.

Imran : Mom, what do I need to buy?

Mom : Well, see if we have enough potatoes?

Imran : We have some potatoes but I don't think it's enough.

Mom : Then get half kg of potatoes. How about tomatoes?

Imran : I don't see any tomatoes.

Mom : Are there any other vegetables?

Imran : Yes, there are some beans, carrots, cucumber and eggplants....That's all.

Mom : Well, I'll need one kg of tomatoes. Half kg of beans and two cauliflowers.

Mom : Are there any eggs, dear?

- Imran : There are only three eggs. Maybe I'll buy a dozen more?
- Mom : Humm..... oh, yes.... get some sugar, and milk and one litre of oil, too.
- Imran : OK. One litre of milk and.... one kg of sugar.
- Mom : One more thing, dear. You are forgetting your list! Here it is.
- Imran : Oh! Thanks, Mom.

A1 Now look at the shopping list below. You have read the conversation above. Now put a tick against the items that Imran will buy and put a cross against the items he will not buy. Write the quantity of the items he is buying in the last column. (One is done for you.)

No.	Items	√/x	Quantity
1	Potatoes	√	½ kg
2	Tomatoes
3	Onions
4	Cauliflower
5	beans
6	Eggplants
7	Eggs
8	Oil
9	Salt
10	Sugar
11	Milk
12	Carrots
13	Cucumber

B Listen to and read the dialogues below.

Salesman : Hello, how can I help you?

Imran : Do you have any beans?

Salesman : Yes, we do. How much would you like?

Imran : I would like half a kg. And I'll also need one kg of tomatoes, two kgs of potatoes, two cauliflowers, a dozen of eggs and some salt.

Salesman : Do you need oil, sir?

Imran : Yes, I need a litre of oil.

Salesman : Do you need anything else?

Imran : Umm..... let me check. (looks at the list).
Oh, yes, could I have some sugar and milk?

Salesman : Sure. How much milk do you want?

Imran : Just one litre, ...and one kg of sugar, please.

Salesman : Ok, let me find all the items for you.

Imran : Thanks. Please put them in a paper or jute bag.

Salesman : Sure! We don't use plastic bags here.
Here you go! I've put all the items here.

Imran : Thank you. How much is the total?

Salesman : The total comes to Taka five hundred and thirty-five.

Imran : Here is five hundred and fifty.

Salesman : Thank you. Here is the change, fifteen taka.
Have a good day!

Imran : Thanks, Bye.

B1 Discuss the following questions in pairs.

- a. How many items did Imran buy?
- b. What varieties of vegetables were available in the market?
- c. Why do you think Imran asked the salesman to use a paper bag?
Discuss with your class friends and then write down one or two reasons.
- d. "Thank you, here is the change,...". What does the word 'change' mean here?

B2 Read the sentences/phrases in the eight speech bubbles. Put them in the right order (1 to 8) to write down the conversation in your notebook.

C Discuss in pairs how you talk about quantities when you go shopping. Match the phrases in column A and the items in column B below to make an imaginary shopping list. Write down the list in your notebook. (One phrase may match more than one items.)

A	B
a can of	poster paper
a loaf of.....	bread
a packet of.....	paint
a tube of.....	facial tissue
half a kilo of.....	cake
a dozen.....	honey
a box of	eggs
a roll of	chocolates
a	toothpaste
a jar of	note book
a sheet of	pencils
	coke

C1 Look at your shopping list again. Can you say which items are available in what kind of shops? There are different shops such as the grocer's, baker's, stationer's, etc. selling different things. Put the items under the proper headings in the table below.

Grocer's	Baker's	Stationer's
a dozen of eggs	A loaf of bread	A tube of paint
.....

- D Work in groups. Create a mini market in the classroom. Put some signs like the Baker's, the Grocer's, the Stationer's etc. Some of you play the roles of shop assistants and some others will be customers. Now the customers move round the room from one shop to the other asking the prices of the items shown in the pictures below. Use the following model.

A shopping day:

- A : Have you got any noodles? / Do you have any noodles?
 B : Yes, I have. / Yes, I do.
 A : How much are they?
 B : Taka twenty-five a packet.
 A : Can I have two packets, please?
 B : Here you are. That's taka fifty altogether.
 A : Thank you.

A proverb says 'Health is Wealth'. To keep healthy is to keep free from disease and anxiety. Good health is proper functioning of all body organs. It is also feeling well both in body and in mind. People in good health are active, cheerful and happy. If you are healthy, you can be happy and can help others in society as well.

To keep in good health we should be careful about hygiene. The rules and practices of keeping good health are called hygiene. We must practise the rules of hygiene. Proper food and nutrition, physical exercise, rest and sleep, cleanliness, and proper medicare are essential for good health.

Some important rules of good personal health are as follows.

- a. Balanced diet: Our food should contain correct proportion of carbohydrates, fat, protein, vitamins, minerals and water in it.
- b. Personal hygiene: We should follow the personal health practices, such as,
 - Wash your hands before eating
 - Bathe regularly and wear clean clothes
 - Brush your teeth twice regularly
 - Do not let your nails grow long. Cut them regularly.
 - Wash your feet and hands before going to bed.
- c. Cleaning household: We should keep our household and environment clean.
- d. Taking clean food and water: Our food should be fresh, clean and properly cooked, and water should be pure.
- e. Taking regular exercise: We should take part in games and sports and take physical exercise regularly.
- f. Taking regular sleep and rest : We should sleep properly and take proper rest.

E1 Answer the following questions.

- 1 What do we mean by hygiene?
- 2 What are essential for good health?
- 3 What do we mean by balanced diet?
- 4 What are the rules of personal hygiene?

F Listen to the conversation on a CD or as your teacher reads it and fill in the blanks in following sentences.

- Sohan : Hi, Simon! You look so fit! Do you exercise regularly?
Simon : Yes, I do. I'm quite about fitness.
Sohan : So, how do you exercise?
Simon : Well, I do jogging everyday in the Then I play
table tennis in the afternoon.
Sohan : I like table tennis, too.
Simon : Oh, will you come to play then?
Sohan : Sure. But do you play?
Simon : Pretty well, I guess.
Sohan : All right. But I'm not very good.
Simon : No problem, Sohan. I won't play

F1 Listen to the conversation again and then practise saying it in pairs.

F2 Read what Simon says about his physical exercise programme.

I'm Simon. I love to exercise. I usually exercise every day. I get up early in the morning and do jogging for half an hour. Almost regularly, I play table tennis in the afternoon. Sometimes, I play football. Once a week, I do yoga.

F3 Now write about what you usually do or would like to do to keep yourself fit.

G Write a short paragraph on the rules of good health. Take your cues from E.

Lesson 10

Remedies: modern and traditional

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- read and understand written instructions
- read and understand texts
- ask and answer questions
- participate in short dialogues and conversations on familiar topics
- write short paragraphs

A Look at the following pictures. Discuss with your partner what they are. Match them with their names given in the box.

paracetamol,
neem,

holy basil/tulsi,
savlon,

antacid,
turmeric,

honey,
aloevera

B Read the following text.

People around the world are slowly changing their attitude towards medicine. More and more they are turning to natural cures. Natural cures are made of natural things, most often herbs and plants. History says that natural or herbal remedies are nothing new. People used them all along in different ages. Herbal medicines were used in ancient civilizations like India, China, Greece, Egypt, and Rome. Some ancient treatment systems are still in practice today. They have come down through generations.

For a minor burn injury the doctor may prescribe you a tube of ointment. But for the same, a rural grandma may put some aloe vera or use cold water. If children have cold in our country, grandmas give them honey and tulsi leaves to eat. And it works too. If you have a minor cut or wound, grown-ups may put some turmeric, marigold or aloe vera on it. Rural people usually use garlic, neem or turmeric to cure skin problems. With experience they have seen that these remedies work. Moreover, they are easy to get, are cheap and most often are without any side effects.

B1 Find out the items for natural cures and chemicals. write the names of natural cures in column A. In the column B, write the items that are chemicals.

Column A (Natural cures)	Column B (Chemicals)
honey	savlon

B2 Answer the questions.

- 1 What are natural cures made of?
- 2 Are herbal cures modern inventions? Explain your reasons.
- 3 Which civilisations are known for herbal treatments?
- 4 What natural remedies are used for cold? Can you add any more natural treatment for cold?
- 5 What herbal cures are used for skin problems?

C Work in pairs. Complete the following expressions with words from the box.

bottle,	box,	can,	package,	tube
---------	------	------	----------	------

- 1 a of ointment
- 2 a of aspirin
- 3 a of bandage
- 4 a of foot spray
- 5 a of tissue

Now write down some sentences using these phrases.

D Read the dialogue and practise in pairs.

- Pharmacist : Good morning. Can I help you?
- Mr Arman : Do you have anything for dry skin?
- Pharmacist : Well, you may try this new body lotion. It's good.
Or, you can try this brand of Olive oil. Olive oil is also good for dry skin.
- Mr Arman : Well, I think I'll take the lotion. How much is it?

D1 Work in pairs. Read the following situations and then make short conversations for each situation. Use can, could, may, should, etc. where necessary.

- 1 You want your teeth to be strong. Ask for a good toothpaste. Your partner will suggest or offer one.
- 2 Decide first what you want to buy and ask for it. Your partner does not have what you want but he/she has something similar.
- 3 You have slightly cut your finger. You ask for something to put on it. Your partner suggests 'Bandaid'.
- 4 Your mother has a headache. You ask for a medicine. Your partner gives you 'Vicks'.

- E People with a cold, a fever, or the flu often go to the doctor for help. But many people in our country also use home remedies for common illnesses. Read about some simple home remedies and answer the following questions.

Cough

For children's cough, grandmas give two tea-spoons of basil leaf/tulsi juice with one spoon of honey. It works excellent.

Some people take grape juice and honey too. It is also good for dry cough.

Hot milk with honey is also useful in cough problems.

You can take ginger tea which is also a useful home remedy for cough.

Cold

Lemon juice is good for any cold because it contains vitamin C. Vitamin C increases body resistance. Lemon juice, hot water and honey together work well in healing common cold.

Toothache

In normal toothache, keep a clove in your mouth. Place it in between the aching teeth and suck on it. You can even apply clove oil on the affected tooth.

Garlic also cures toothache. Place a clove of garlic on the aching tooth and munch mildly. Its juice will work as a relief.

A pinch of pepper powder mixed with common salt works well on the aching tooth. It's especially effective against the increased sensitiveness of the teeth.

Headache

Eating apples gives good result in headaches. While eating, add a little salt to it.

When headache is caused by cold winds, cinnamon works the best. Make a paste of cinnamon by mixing in water and apply it on your forehead.

E1 Learn these words:

ginger, resistance, clove, garlic, pepper, cinnamon, sensitive, munch, pinch (as used in the text).

E2 Do you know of any other home remedies that people use in our country? Ask your parents / relatives and make a list of such remedies other than the items given in your text.

Lesson 11

Are you listening?-1

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- recognize English sounds
- recognize word and stress on words in sentences
- recognize intonation in sentences
- read aloud texts with proper pronunciation, stress and intonation

A Listen to and read the following words.

shed

shade

pepper

paper test taste

wet

wait

pen

pain

man

mane

A1 Do you notice any difference between the vowel sound in the words on the left column and the vowel sounds in the words on the right?

Listen to and repeat the sounds in Section- A again.

A2 Read the following sentences first. Notice the underlined words carefully.

Then listen to and repeat the sentences pronouncing the underlined words properly using the vowel sounds you just practised in section A.

- a. I met Benu and her room-mate in the book store.
- b. They were buying some papers and pens.
- c. I remember her friend's face, but I can't remember her name.
- d. Later, I met them again the same day at the bus station.
- e. They were waiting for some friends to come.

west	waste
debt	date
let	late
get	gate
tell	tail

A4 Read the following sentences. Add 'e' to the underlined word in each sentence to make a new word. Now fill in the blank in the sentence with the new word. One is done for you.

- a. Can you please buy me a new cane?
- b. I to ask you, but can you buy me a hat, too?
- c. I lost both at the canteen where I lunch yesterday.
- d. Sam, my friend, was having lunch at the canteen.
- e. He was mad at me because I him go back and look for my things later.

Lesson 12

Birds of Bangladesh

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- write short paragraphs
- talk about people, places and familiar objects in short simple sentences

A Read the following passage.

Bangladesh is a country full of natural resources. We are proud of our soil, forests, flowers, fruits and birds. The country is gifted with plentiful of fauna due to its geographical location. Birds are one of them. Today we will read about a bird known as 'Benebau' in Bangla, and 'Blackheaded Oriole' in English.

Blackheaded Oriole (Benebau)

The Blackheaded Oriole is a bird of the plain land of Bangladesh. Its body is deep yellow, its head, its throat, its tail and some part of its wings are black; its beak is red. It looks like a Mayna and is about 25cm in length. It is seen in Bangladesh, India, Srilanka, Myanmar and some other countries.

The Blackheaded Oriole is a very sprightly and restless bird. It never stays at one spot for long. It eats all kinds of worms and insects.

Its call is quite sweet and pleasant. The Blackheaded Oriole builds round shaped beautiful nests with dry grass and barks of trees. Both the male and the female bird take part in building their nests. The Blackheaded Oriole lays two to three eggs at a time.

A1 Learn the meanings of these words:

Geographical fauna resources sprightly plentiful beak lay

A2 Look at the picture of the 'Tia' (Parakeet) below. And then write a paragraph on the bird using the clues given.

Clues: found all over Bangladesh - about 42 cm - whole body green - strong, curved beak, bright red - eyes round and yellow - feet red - tall, slim tail -around its neck black and red coloured rings - eats grass, nuts, chilli, ripe banana and other fruits -live in flocks -builds nests in tall shimul trees/ in holes of empty buildings - lays four to six eggs

(Text and photographs: M A Taher)

B Do you know the name of our national bird? Can you describe it in simple words? You may follow the above models.

Lesson 13

An unseen beauty of Bangladesh

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- ask and answer questions
- read and understand texts
- write short paragraphs

A Discuss the following questions in pairs.

1. Have you ever visited any interesting tourist spot in Bangladesh?

If you have, what was that place. What special attractions did you see there?

If you haven't, what places do you wish to visit? What special attractions will you see there?

2. Which of the following activities would you like to do while visiting a tourist spot?

sight-seeing, taking photos, having picnic, shopping, collecting souvenirs, others

B Now read the text on Birishiri, a quiet and less known tourist spot located in the north-eastern border of Bangladesh.

Bangladesh is a small country but it is gifted with unlimited natural attractions. Only some of these eye-catching destinations are known to us. But there are many other areas lying in the green, remote countryside that are less-known to us. Shusong Durgapur of Birishiri is one of such places.

Shusong Durgapur has an amazing landscape. It is located on the bank of crystal clear Someshwari river and is close to the Garo hills. You can see the hills of Indian state of Meghalaya from here. The nature has unfolded its glory in this small, rural landscape. Here you can see the ceramic mountain leaning against the sky, the blue water of the pictorial mountain-valley, the modest movement of the river Someshwari, and the abandoned coal mines. There is another river here called Kangsa which is also known as old Someshwari.

Shusong Durgapur is located under Netrokona district about 170 km north from Dhaka. It's not only blessed with alluring natural beauty, but also rich in vibrant ethnic culture.

There are many ethnic groups like - Hajong, Garo, Achik and Mandi living here. The Birishiri Tribal Cultural Academy is located at Durgapur. It is a centre for various cultural and educational activities of different tribes.

The main attraction of Birishiri is the ceramic hill of Durgapur and the charming landscape along the Shomeshwari River. The river changes its color as the seasons change. Among other attractions are the palace of the Susang king, the Dasha Busha Temple, Orange Gardens, Shal forests and the Ramkrishna and Loknath Baba Temples.

The best way to get to Birishiri is by road from Dhaka. You can find direct bus to Birishiri from Mohakhali bus stand, Dhaka. It usually takes 5 to 6 hours to get there. When you are there you can go around the town by rickshaws. The rickshaw pullers know all the places very well.

B1 Complete the dialogue below and act it out in pairs.

- A : Are there any rivers in Birishiri?
- B : Yes, there are. There are two rivers, the Shomeshwari and Kangsa.
- A : Is there any hills in Birishiri?
- B : Yes, ... is. It's called
- A : Can I see any other hills from there?
- B : Yes, you You can see the hills of..... state from there.
- A : Will I see people of various ethnic groups there?
- B : Yes, you You will see people of Hajong, ..., Achik and tribes.
- A : Are there any temples there?
- B : Yes, there You can see the Dasha Busha Temple and the temples there.

B2 Discuss the following questions in pairs.

1. In which district is Shusong Durgapur located?
2. How far is Shusong Durgapur from Dhaka?
3. Where is the Birishiri Tribal Cultural Academy?
4. How can you get to Shusong Durgapur from Dhaka?
5. Why is Shusong Durgapur called 'an unseen beauty of Bangladesh'?

C Match the phrases with the meanings.

Phrases	Meanings
1. eye-catching destinations	a. see-through
2. green, remote countryside	b. lively activities of people from certain tribal groups
3. crystal clear	c. means of travelling from one place to another
4. pictorial mountain-valley	d. places that draws one's attentions

D Write a passage on a place of tourist attraction that you know.

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- read and understand texts
- ask and answer questions
- write short paragraphs
- participate in short dialogues and conversations on familiar topics

A Read the following passage.

For the people of Bangladesh, March is a month of unforgettable memories - memories of pride as well as of sorrow and grief. It is a month of proud memories because in this month in 1971 Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman declared the independence of Bangladesh. In the early hours of the 26th March, shortly before his arrest by the Pakistani army, Bangabandhu declared the independence of Bangladesh. Now 26th March is our Independence Day which we celebrate annually with pride and joy.

But March is also a month of sad memories for us. On the 25th March 1971, the Pakistani army swooped upon the Bangalees. They killed many unarmed and innocent men, women and children in Dhaka. The Bangalees did not let it go unchallenged. They started resisting Pakistani army and the war of liberation began. On the 16th December of the same year, a new nation independent Bangladesh was born. This is why December 16 is our Victory Day when the Pakistani army surrendered unconditionally.

We, the Bangalees celebrate our Victory Day by remembering the roles of our fearless freedom fighters. On the other hand, we sadly remember all the sufferings that our people endured during the liberation war. We pay our deep respect to the martyrs who gave their lives for the independence of Bangladesh. Along with celebrating our Victory Day every year, we should make a pledge to work unitedly to build the Sonar Bangla that Bangabandhu dreamed of.

A1 Match a word in column A with a word in column B that has similar meaning.

column A	column B
annually	courageous
heroic	freedom
liberation	once a year
surrender	promise
endure	to bear
pledge	to admit defeat and give up

A2 Answer the following questions.

- Why do we feel sad on our Victory Day?
- The night of 25 March is often called 'The dark night'. Can you say why?
- Why do you think we celebrate 26 March as our Independence Day ?
- How many months did we fight to achieve victory in our war of independence?

A3 Choose the answers you think will truly make Bangladesh Bangabandhu's 'Sonar Bangla' (the Golden Bengal).

- a When everyone in our country will have food, shelter and will be able to get treatment in sickness.
- b When every child will go to madrasah and have quality education.
- c When some people will be very rich and some others will be very poor.
- d When only rich children will get good education.
- e When no child will have to work for a living.

B Listen to the dialogue from a CD or as your teacher reads it out and fill in the gaps.

Teacher : Well students, how do we celebrate our national days?

Shanta : We go to the on We go to the Jatiyo Smritisoudho at on and Teacher : Great! But do you know the English of Jatiyo Smriti Soudho?

Shanta : Yes, ma'am. It's Mausoleum.

Lesson 15

The lion's mane

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- read and understand texts
- talk about people, places and familiar objects in short and simple sentences

A Read the story.

Once, a lion was sitting beside a river. Suddenly he looked at his own reflection and thought "My mane is too old. I need a new hairstyle!"

The lion then roared "I'm the king of the jungle and this unruly mane does not fit a king" He dipped his paw into the river and tried desperately to smooth his mane.

"Flap it all up. That will suit you!" the zebra said. "Yes, it will even look better with a bit of colour to match your moustache," the giraffe added. "What about a few ribbons?" the vulture asked. Then cried the hyena "I know, a paper crown is what you need!" A snake was passing by silently. Seeing the king there he simply raised his head.

"What do you think I should do, snake?" The king asked.

"If a king is a wise king, nobody cares about his hairstyle," The snake said with a hissing sound.

The king stared at the snake for some time. Then he smiled and kissed the snake.

"Oh, why am I so vain? Am I not the king of the jungle?" roared the lion. He shook his head from side to side to shake his mane back into place. " From now on I promise to be a wise king and not bother about my looks!" the lion roared.

A1 Match the words in Column A with the meanings given in column B.

Column A	Column B
mane	a line of hair that some people have on their upper lip
roar	move quickly
unruly	lift or move upwards
flap	a sound like a long 's'
moustache	the long hair on the neck of a horse or a lion raise	to make a very loud, deep sound
hissing sound	difficult to control or manage

A2 Answer the following questions.

1. Why did the lion want to change his hairstyle?
2. What was the giraffe's suggestion?
3. Do you agree with the snake's comment? Why/Why not?

A3 Every animal has something that makes it different from others. Now match the words in column A with the words in Column B to know the different marks of some animals.

Column A	Column B
Lion	wool
Elephant	trunk
Zebra	stripes
Sheep	horns
Buffalow	pony tail
Horse	curved tail
Dog	scale
Fish	mane

B Here is a puzzle for you.

Can you say which baby is born with a moustache?

Lesson 16

An old people's home

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- read and understand texts
- ask and answer questions
- write short paragraphs

A Read the text below.

Mariam is a student of class six in a government school in Rajshahi. Her mother works in an office and her father is a businessman. Mariam is very fond of her aunt, her father's sister, Suraiya Begum who lives in another part of the same town. On Fridays she often goes to her aunt's place and spends time with her.

Suraiya Begum is a retired school teacher. She is a widow and lives alone. Her husband died three years ago. Her two daughters are married and live with their families abroad. They talk to her over telephone and come to visit her whenever they get time.

Suraiya Begum has a lot of free time. She spends her time in reading books, watching TV, visiting friends and relatives. Sometimes she writes letters to her old colleagues. But now a days she often gets bored of doing all these things. She wants to do something more meaningful, something that would do good to others. She is planning to establish an old people's home in her locality. She knows some elderly people live all alone. They have no one to take care of them. They often feel helpless and miserable. They need care and support.

As part of her plan, Suraiya Begum started to visit families. She talks to a number of people. She tries to find out the problems of elderly people in their families. She understands that old people are lonely and often they become sick. They have nobody to look after them.

On Fridays, she often takes Mariam with her on these visits. Mariam has already become very friendly with some of the old men and women. They all love Mariam very much. She tells them about her school and friends, her studies, her family. And they often tell her funny stories, fairy tales and ghost stories.

A1 Read the text carefully again and match the words on the left with the words on the right that have similar meanings.

bored	woman whose husband has died and who hasn't married again
miserable	a person with whom one works in a profession colleague	feeling tired because one does not find interest in something widow	help
support	very unhappy

A2 Read the following sentences and say if they are true or false. If false, then give the right answers.

- Suraiya Begum spends most her time taking care of her family.
- She wants to set up a school for adults who cannot read or write.
- There is already an old people's home in the town.
- Mariam enjoys spending time with her aunt.
- The old people Mariam visits do not like children's presence.

B Read the following letter.

Suraiya Begum needs many people's help to make her dream come true. She sits down to write a letter to a friend who was her colleague and who now lives in the next town.

Dear Sharmila,

How are you? I'm writing to share with you a plan that I have. I know some old, physically weak and lonely people in our town. Some of them are quite well-off and some are not. But they all share one common thing that is they live alone and have no one to take care of them in sickness. Sometimes they don't have anybody to talk to.

I have a plan. I want to set up a home for the old people where they would live like a family and we can be a part of that family, too. I need your help because I know that together we can do a lot.

Write to me soon. I'll wait eagerly for your reply.

Your friend,
Suraiya

B1 Answer the following questions.

- a. Who is the writer of the letter?
- b. Who is she writing to? What is the relationship between the two?
- c. Does the writer have any particular reason for writing this letter?
- d. Do you think what Suraiya Begum wants to do is her profession, or is it a community work? Why do you think so?

B2 Work in groups. Think of some good work that you can do for someone around you. What are they? Now write two or three sentences about what you can do for them.

Cues: teach, help in doing something, clean, etc.

Boats sail on the rivers

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- recognize English sounds
- recognize intonation in sentences
- understand and enjoy stories and poems

A Listen to, read and then recite the poem.

Boats sail on the rivers

- Christina Georgina Rossetti

Boats sail on the rivers,
And ships sail on the seas;
But clouds that sail across the sky
Are prettier far than these.

There are bridges on the rivers,
As pretty as you please;
But the bow that bridges heaven,
And overtops the trees,
And builds a road from earth to sky,
Is prettier far than these.

A1 What bow is the poet talking about when she says, 'But the bow that bridges heaven'?

Lesson 18

Are you listening?-2

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- recognize english sounds
- recognize word stress and stress on words in sentences
- recognize intonation in sentences
- use English sounds appropriately
- use intonation in sentences properly
- read aloud texts with proper pronunciation, stress and intonation,

A Read the following poem and see how the letter 'e' changes the vowel sound in a word.

The Magic E

In my long can
I have a plan
For making new word
Out of old.
To make can cane
To make plan plane,
Add 'e'
And see new words unfold.
My magic 'e'
Is like a key:
It turns the vowel sound
Of a word.
Each time you see
A final e
You know a dipthong
Or, two vowel sounds
Together
You are likely to hear.

A1 Say the following sentences aloud. Notice the sound the magic 'e' gives to the letter 'i'.

- : Ready? Okay. Look at the camera and smile everybody!
- : Thanks.
- : Can you ride a bike?
- : Yes, I can.
- : Can you play Hide and Seek?
- : Of course! Who cannot!

8. Serve the noodles in a dish.

Lesson 20

Stop, look and listen

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- read aloud texts with proper pronunciation, stress and intonation
- read and understand texts

A Read the following verse.

"Stop, Look, and Listen"
Is a very good rule to use
Not just before you cross a street,
But when you look for clues.

A1 Did you enjoy the poem? Discuss with a partner about what the poet is trying to say here.

B Quickly read through the following passage only once. Notice that there are some blank spaces. Now listen to the passage from a CD, or as your teacher reads it out. And as you listen, fill in the blanks with words you hear.

Last week, for my _____, I got a little white-board and a package of colored _____. I took it to school and _____ to my teacher. Lesson 21

Hason Raja: The mystic bard of Bangladesh

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- read and understand texts
- ask and answer questions
- read aloud with proper pronunciation, stress and intonation

A Look at the pictures below. Do you know who they are or anything about them? Can you match the names with the pictures?

Read the passage below to find out.

The above pictures are of the three well-known mystic bards of Bangladesh. They are famous in Bangladesh and in other countries too. They are Lalon Shah, Hason Raja and Shah Abdul Karim.

A bard is one who writes poems and songs. And a mystic is one who tries to search the Truth and become united with God through prayer and meditation. All three bards wrote poems and songs to express their deep thoughts and feelings about God, life and love for man.

B Today you will read about the mystic poet Hason Raja.

Read the following text.

Hason Raja was born in 1854 in a wealthy landlord's family in Sylhet. He did not receive much formal education. In his youth, he led a life of luxury. He had everything- money, comfort and pleasure. At one time he understood that all these are meaningless. He gave away all of his properties. He started to think deeply about the Creator, about life, death and mankind. Hason Raja wrote a lot of songs, perhaps about a thousand in number. His book called 'Hason Udash' was published in 1906. The book had 206 songs in it. In his songs Hason called himself 'Crazy Hason Raja' or the 'Pagla Hason Raja'. A volume called 'Hason Raja Samagra' (Complete Works of Hason Raja) was also published. The book contained 500 poems and songs. Some of the songs were written by the poet in Hindi.

Hason Raja's songs were always popular in Sylhet. But very soon they spread all over Bangladesh and beyond. In India's West Bengal, some eminent folk singers made Hason's songs popular. When you grow older, you will learn more about this great mystic poet through reading and listening to his songs.

Hason Raja

B1 Answer the following questions.

- a. When was Hason Raja born?
- b. Where did he come from?
- c. What was his childhood like?
- d. Why did Hason Raja leave the life of comfort and pleasure?
- e. What was the other name by which Hason Raja was known?

B2 Practise reading the passage loudly giving proper attention to pronunciation, pause and intonation.

B3 Learn the meanings of the words:

comfort, luxury, pleasure, volume, crazy, contain, beyond, eminent

Lesson 22

Wonders of the world-1

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- follow instructions, commands, requests accordingly
- read and understand texts

A Look at the pictures. What are they called?

B Now listen to the CD/audio and fill in the gaps of the following text:

The pyramids are huge for the ancient kings and queens of Egypt. These kings and queens are known as the It needed a few thousand to build the pyramids. The most famous are the Giza pyramids. Giza is a place near Cairo, the of Egypt. The Pyramids of at Giza is the largest Egyptian pyramid. It is the only one of the still in existence.

C Read the following text.

The Taj Mahal is also known as "the Taj". It is a white marble tomb located in Agra in India. Do you know the story behind the Taj Mahal? The Mughal emperor, Shah Jahan loved his wife Mumtaz Mahal more than his life. Mumtaz died at an early age. Shah Jahan was very shocked at her death. So he built the Taj Mahal as a token of love for his wife. It is the place where Mumtaz is sleeping for ever.

The Taj has an area of about 1003 acres or 405 hectares. The Taj Mahal is the finest example of Mughal architecture. It combines the art of Persia, Turkey, and India. It took 21 years and thousands of artisans and craftsmen to complete the Taj Mahal. The Taj is universally admired as one of the wonders of the world.

C1 Now make questions using the cues given below.

1. What is.....?
2. Where is.....?
3. How Shah Jahan.....?
4. Who.....?
5. When..... Mumtaz.....?
6. Why Shah Jahan.....?
7. How many.....?

C2 Complete the following table with the information given in the passage.

Shah Jahan	built

To complete the Taj	it took

D Read the text about one of the wonders of the world, the Eiffel Tower. Put the verbs in brackets into the correct tense.

The Eiffel Tower is a lattice tower in Paris. It (be) built in 1889. Now it (symbolise) the cultural icon of France. It stands as one of the most recognisable structures in the world too. The tower (be) famous as the tallest construction in Paris and the most-visited paid monument in the world. Millions of people (ascend) it every year. It is 320 metres (1,050 ft) tall, about the same height as an 81-story building. The tower (have) three levels for visitors. A visitor(have) to walk over 300 steps to go from ground level to the first level. The distance(remain) the same between the first and the second level. The third and highest level can be (access) only by lift. The tower is (name) after the engineer Gustave Eiffel, whose company (design) and (build) the tower.

E Now read the dialogue. What is it about?

- Mong Pru : Nira, I'm really surprised to know about these wonders. What do you think?
- Nira : They are amazing! But the wonders of the present time are also amazing. They are not as huge as the super structures of the past but they are also incredible!
- Mong Pru : What do you mean?
- Nira : Just wait for now! Let me only say that some of the wonders of the modern world are truly incredible! I mean, they are really unbelievable! We'll read about them in the next lesson.

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- read and understand texts
- write short paragraphs

A Nira and Mong Pru are excited! They are waiting eagerly for their teacher to come and start the lesson. They are going to read about the wonders of the modern world. Read the text below.

People often speak about the wonders of the past. Mostly they were huge buildings and constructions. They are awesome and fabulous, no doubt. But the wonders of the present world are also unbelievable. Read about the following recent inventions.

Computers

The invention of the computer is very important in human life. It has changed the life style of people in the world. We use it in every sphere of our life. We can use it for studies, communication, watching movies, listening to music, playing games, etc. In a moment we can get information from any part of the world on the computer. People do not feel lonely as they can send emails to their friends and relatives. Some of their friends and relatives also live in far off countries. Even they can talk to them face to face on the skype. With computer a person can always keep himself updated. Everybody should learn to use the computer. In fact the computer has made people's work easier and faster. At present it has become a part of our daily life.

Space travel

Not hundred years before human beings used to think- Had I the wings of a bird! ... Dream came true when the Right brothers flew with the first aeroplane. Now people travel faster than a bird.

They not only travel from one continent to another continent, they travel from one planet to another planet. That human beings have set footsteps on the moon is now an old story. Spacecrafts have won the Mars. Every now and then spacecrafts are going to see the conditions of other planets. As a result, people are planning to be inter-space citizens in the coming days. A day will come when people will live in the moon, take education from the Jupiter and spend vacation in another space thousand light years away!

Mobile phones

Mobile phone is another useful invention of the world. Like computers mobile phones help us greatly in our daily life. Through mobiles we can connect the whole world. Only a few years ago we had difficulty to contact our near and dear ones. That was very costly too. Mobile phones are very handy and we can use them for communication with people at a very low cost. Mobile phones have different functions such as making calls, listening to music, taking photographs, storing information, etc. Even it can be used for distance learning.

A1 Read the words in Column A and match them with the meanings in Column B.

Column A	Column B
loney	influence
sphere	a vehicle that travels in space
impact	surprise
wonder	isolation
spacecraft	area

A2 Read the words in Column A and match the opposite meanings given in Column B.

Column A	Column B

B Now read the following dialogue and fill in the gaps with the words from the list of words in the earlier exercises.

- Asif : Have you finished reading, Habib? What do you think?
- Habib : Thank you, Asif. I must say they are really
- Asif : Habib, you see, most of the time we have to mobile phones or computers. But perhaps we often do not feel the of these
- Habib : You are right. By the way, do you have a computer?
- Asif : Sometimes I use my parents' laptop. I play games, or watch movies or the internet. I must say it is a good way to avoid
- Habib : So do you agree that it is not a?
- Asif : Oh, no! It's not a luxury at all! Anyway, what's your opinion about mobile phones and spacecraft?
- Habib : Well, I always how this tiny device works without any cable and do so many things! It's a surprise for us, isn't it?
- Asif : No doubt about it! And spacecraft?
- Habib : After reading the article we must say that It's!

C What innovation around you surprises you the most? Write a small paragraph stating what it is, how it benefits you, and why you are surprised.

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- read and understand the texts

A Read the introduction first and then the story below.

Many hundreds of years ago, Aesop, a Greek slave, became famous for the fables he told. After so many years, people all over the world still enjoy reading them today as much as the Greeks enjoyed listening to them long, long ago.

The Seven Sticks

Long ago and far away, there was an old farmer who had seven sons. One day, the old farmer was lying on his bed and he thought that he would not live much longer. He called his sons before him. He told a servant to bring in a bundle of seven sticks tied together. He handed the bundle to his oldest son and said to him, "Son, now break the bundle."

The son tried with all his might, but he could not break the bundle. One by one, the other brothers tried. None of them was strong enough.

The father smiled, "Now, my sons, untie the bundle. Each of you, take a stick and try to break it." This time they had no difficulty breaking the sticks. In a few moments all the sticks were broken.

The old man looked at his sons affectionately and said, "Remember, in unity there is strength."

A1 What do you think is the main idea or the moral of the story? Discuss in groups.

A2 Write a few simple sentences to explain what you mean by 'In unity there is strength.'

Language Focus:

Notice the word 'untie'. The base word here is 'tie'.

Tie means- to bind or to hold two or more things together using string, rope, etc.

Untie means to undo something that is tied so that they are not held together any more.

Notice that we add un- before a word to mean not or the opposite of that word. We use dis- with some words while we use im-, or in-, or dis- with some other words to mean 'not' or the 'opposite of'.

A3 Read the sentences below. The base word is underlined in the first sentence of each group of sentences. Add un- , dis-, im-, or in- to each base word to make a new word. Now fill in each blank in every second sentence with a suitable new word.

- a. Maher folded the handkerchief carefully and gave it to me.
When I _____ the handkerchief, there was a coin in it.
- b. "Do you like my poster, Robiul?" asked Maher.
"No, I _____ too much of black and red together," said Robiul.
- c. "Teacher, is my answer correct?"
"No, dear. It's _____. Try again."
- d. "Is it possible to change this dress? I bought it last week but I don't like the colour now," said Mila.
"It is _____, ma'am. You've already worn it," replied the salesperson.

A4 The story below is about a wood cutter. Complete the story

Once upon a time there was a farmer living in a village near a forest. He was very poor. He had only an axe. One day he went to a deep forest beside a river for cutting wood. Suddenly his axe fell into the river. Then he.....

Lesson 25

We live in a global village

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- read and understand the texts
- follow instructions, commands, requests and act accordingly
- understand and enjoy stories and poems

A Look at the pictures and discuss with your partner what you see in them.

B Sohan's uncle works in the army. At present he is in Congo in a UN Peacekeeping Mission. Read his letter and do the following activity.

Dear Sohan,

I got your letter two days ago. But I was very busy here. So I'm late to reply.

Congo is a central African country. There is violence among political groups. So our life here is very challenging. We maintain peace and security. We distribute food, water, medicine to people. We sometimes build houses for them. We also teach children in small schools.

Last week I met an interesting young man here. His name is Gurmit Singh. He was born in India. In his early childhood, he left for Singapore with his parents and went to a Singaporean school. After a few years, he moved to Denmark and completed his school education there. For graduation, he went to the US and got a university degree. Then he left for the UK and completed his Master degree there.

Gurmit came to Congo to work for a voluntary organisation. His main job is to look after children's education in a community school. He belongs to a group of ten workers. They all came from different countries.

He is a nice fellow and a good friend of ours. We call him 'Mr Global Citizen'. I'm writing below the conversation I had with him the other day.

"You've been to so many countries! How do you feel about that?"

"It's nice to work with different people. I've come to know them...their language, culture, family, mind. I sometimes think I belong to all."

"Well, Gurmit you're a true global citizen."

"Aren't you too, Zul?" smiled Gurmit Singh. 'We all are the same human race, eh."

Well, that's all for today. Hope your exam is over by now. So write to me soon about what you think of Gurmit.

With love,
Uncle 'Zul'

B1 Now match the words in column A with their meaning in column B.

A	B
challenging	keep up
maintain	international
graduation	difficult
clash	university degree
global	fight

B2 Read silently the text in B again. Then ask and answer the following questions.

1 Where is Congo?

2 Who call Gurmit Singh 'Mr Global Citizen'? Why?

3 What do you mean by 'global citizen'?

B3 Make a list of 5 questions you would like to ask Gurmit if you met him.

C Listen to the CD/audio and fill in the following gaps.

The term 'global village' was used by Marshal McLuhan. In 1962 and he wrote two books on media and communication. In his books he said that telephone, TV and electronic media have brought all mankind close to one another. For example, if we see the news of floods in a distant country on TV, we feel that we are also there. We can see what is happening at the same moment. We can share the same suffering with the people who are in the real at the moment. McLuhan believed that electronic would make the world a global village. When he first said about the idea of global village, the Internet was not invented. But now, personal computers and the Internet have made McLuhan's idea more than ever. Now the entire globe is in a world-wide web called 'The Internet'.

Lesson 26

Our wage earners

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- ask and answer questions
- read and understand texts
- participate in short dialogues and conversations on familiar topics

A Look at the pictures and the words in the following box. Discuss and say which words are related with the pictures.

wage earner, skilled worker, economy, job, tourists, pleasure, abroad, foreign

B Work in pairs. Ask and answer the question first. Then read the following text to match your answers.

- Why is there demand for Bangladeshi workers?
- Do you know what countries they work in?
- Can you guess why they don't earn much money?

A huge number of Bangladeshis go abroad for jobs. There is always a high demand of workers in some foreign countries like UAE, Omam, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Bahrain, etc. They like Bangladeshi workers because they are hard working. But this is a matter of regret that our workers are doing odd jobs. As a result they are not paid much. This is because our workers are not good at English, Arabic, or other languages. So we should develop language skills of our workers for the countries they go for work. If they can develop their language skills, they can get good jobs and send more money to our country. Thus the wage earners of our country can help develop our economy.

Column A	Column B
Number of workers go abroad for job
Skills required for good job abroad
Countries preferring Bangladeshi workers
Wage earners of our country can

C Sohan had a conversation with a Bangladeshi doctor, Mr Arman who works in a hospital in Cairo, Egypt. Read and practise the dialogue in pairs.

- Sohan : Can you tell me a little about Cairo?
 Dr Arman : Sure. What would you like to know?
 Sohan : Well, what's a good time to visit there?
 Dr Arman : I think you can visit any time. The weather is more or less the same.
 Sohan : Good! And what should I see there?
 Dr Arman : Well, you can visit the Cairo Museum and you should see the mummies. And you mustn't leave Cairo without visiting the Pyramids.
 Sohan : Anything else?
 Dr Arman : Oh yes. If you have time, you may visit Port Suez. You could have an excellent night view of the Red Sea.

Lesson 27

The Concert for Bangladesh

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- read and understand texts
- ask and answer questions
- participate in short dialogues and conversations on familiar topics

A It's Friday evening. Mr. Farhad is playing a song on his DVD player in his study. Her daughter Fahmida comes in. On the TV screen, a tall, bearded man with long hair is playing a guitar and singing a song, "Bangladesh, Bangladesh..." Fahmida is thrilled to hear the word 'Bangladesh' from a singer who looks like foreigner. She has the following conversation with her father about the song and the singer.

Fahmida : Father, who is this singer? He is not a Bangladeshi, is he?

Mr. Farhad : You are right! He is not. He is a famous singer from England. His name is George Harrison.

Fahmida : George Harrison! Why did he sing the song on Bangladesh?

Mr. Farhad : That's a huge story. Harrison was not only a famous singer but also a great humanist. He helped us during our Liberation War of 1971.

Fahmida : Did he come to Bangladesh to take part in the Liberation War?

Mr. Farhad : No, my child, he didn't come to Bangladesh, but he fought for our cause by organising the historic Concert for Bangladesh.

Fahmida : Concert for Bangladesh! Please, father. Tell me more about it.

- Mr. Farhad : Well, the Concert for Bangladesh was held on the 1st August, 1971 at the Madison Square Garden, New York. George Harrison and some other famous musicians performed in that live concert in front of a audience of about forty thousand people. It was organised to make the world aware of the sufferings of Bangladesh during our liberation war.
- Fahmida : Wasn't that great!
- Mr. Farhad : Yes, it was great! The concert won huge support for the millions of war victims of Bangladesh. At the same time it raised millions of dollars for UNICEF relief fund.
- Fahmida : I'm really glad that you told me all this, Father. I think we should be grateful to George Harrison and his friends who organised the Concert for Bangladesh.
- Mr. Farhad : You are right, dear! We should remember those great friends who helped us in our days of struggle and suffering.

A1 In pairs, discuss if the following statements are True or False. If false, correct the statement.

- George Harrison was from the United States.
- In 1971, George Harrison visited Bangladesh to take part in the liberation war.
- A huge audience attended the concert for Bangladesh.
- George Harrison was the only well-known musician to take part in the Concert for Bangladesh.
- The people of the world became aware of the crisis in Bangladesh following the Concert for Bangladesh.

B Read the lyrics of the song aloud. Here are some parts of the song 'Bangladesh'.

Bangladesh

My friend came to me, with sadness in his eyes
He told me that he wanted help
Before his country dies

Although I couldn't feel the pain, I knew I had to try
Now I'm asking all of you
To help us save some lives

Bangladesh, Bangladesh
 Where so many people are dying fast
 And it sure looks like a mess
 I've never seen such distress

Now won't you lend your hand and understand
 Relieve the people of Bangladesh
 Bangladesh, Bangladesh
 Such a great disaster - I don't understand
 But it sure looks like a mess
 I've never known such distress
 Now please don't turn away, I want to hear you say
 Relieve the people of Bangladesh
 Relieve Bangladesh

B1 Now complete the summary of the first three stanzas of the song 'Bangladesh' with suitable words from the box below the passage.

My friend came to me with sad eyes and requested me to help his country before it died. Though I could not feel the pain, but I think I should try to help. I also appeal to you all to (1) _____ us to save the lives of those people. So many people are dying (2) _____ in this country called Bangladesh. The country is facing (3) _____ and I have never seen such sufferings. Now, won't you (4) _____ beside the people of Bangladesh and (5) _____ forward to reduce their sufferings?

Andre

- Gwendolyn Brooks

I had a dream last time. I dreamed
I had to pick a Mother out.
I had to choose a Father too.
At first, I wondered what to do,
There were so many there, it seemed,
Short and tall and thin and stout.

But just before I sprang awake,
I knew what parents I would take.
And this surprised and made me glad;
They were the ones I was always had.

The Garden

Arnold Lobel

Frog was in his garden. Toad came walking by.

"What a fine garden you have, Frog," he said.

"Yes," said Frog. It is very nice, but it was hard work."

"I wish I had a garden," said Toad.

"Here are some flower seeds.

Plant them in the ground," said Frog,

"and soon you will have a garden."

"How soon?" asked Toad.

"Very soon," said Frog.

Toad ran home. He planted the flower seeds.

"New seeds," said Toad, "start growing."

Toad walked up and down a few times. The seeds did not start to grow.

Toad put his head close to the ground and cried, "Now seeds, start growing!"

The seeds did not start to grow.

Toad put his head very close to the ground and shouted, "NOW SEEDS START GROWING!"

Frog ran up the path. "What is going on?" he asked.

"My seeds will not grow," said Toad.

"You are shouting too much," said Frog.
"These poor seeds are afraid to grow."

"My seeds are afraid to grow?" asked Toad.

"Yes," said Frog. "Leave them alone for a few days. Let the sun shine on them, let the rain fall on them. Soon your seeds will start to grow."

That night Toad looked out his window.

"Oh, no!" cried Toad. "My seeds have not started to grow. They must be afraid of the dark."

Toad went out to his garden.

"I will read the seeds a story," said Toad.

Toad read a long story to his seeds.
All the next day Toad sang songs to his seeds.

And all the next day Toad read poems to his seeds.

And all the next day Toad played music for his seeds.

Toad looked at the ground. The seeds still did not start to grow.

"What shall I do?" cried Toad. "These seeds are still afraid to grow."

Then Toad became very tired, and he fell asleep.

"Toad, Toad, wake up," said Frog. "Look at your garden!"

Toad looked at his garden. Little green plants were growing up out of the ground.

"At last," shouted Toad, "my seeds are not afraid anymore."

"And now you will have a nice garden, too," said Frog.

"Yes," said Toad, "but you were right, Frog. It was very hard work."

Sample Question for Grade 6
(From 2017)
English Paper One
Full Marks: 80
Time: 3 hours

Section A: Reading (Total Marks 40)

1. Read the following text and answer the question that follows.

People around the world are slowly changing their attitude towards medicine. More and more they are turning to natural cures. Natural cures are made of natural things, most often herbs and plants. History says that natural or herbal remedies are nothing new. People used them all along in different ages. Herbal medicines were used in ancient civilizations like India, China, Greece, Egypt, and Rome. Some ancient treatment systems are still in practice today. They have come down through generations.

For a minor burn injury the doctor may prescribe you a tube of ointment. But for the same, a rural grandma may put some aloe vera or use cold water. If children have cold in our country, grandmas give them honey and tulsi leaves to eat. And it works too. If you have a minor cut or wound, grown-ups may put some turmeric, marigold or aloe vera on it. Rural people usually use garlic, neem or turmeric to cure skin problems. With experience they have seen that these remedies work. Moreover, they are easy to get, are cheap and most often are without any side effect.

Now choose the correct answer to each question from the alternatives given and write the corresponding number of the answers in your answer script.

2. Read the text and answer the following questions.2X5=10

Hason Raja was born in 1854 in a wealthy landlord's family in Sylhet. He did not receive much formal education. In his youth, he led a life of luxury. He had everything - money, comfort, and pleasure. At one time he understood that all these are meaningless. He gave away all of his property. He started to think deeply about the Creator, about life, death and mankind. Hason Raja wrote a lot of songs, perhaps about a thousand in number. His book called "Hason Udash" was published in 1906. The book had 206 songs in it. In his songs Hason called himself 'Crazy Hason Raja' or 'Pagla Hason Raja'. A volume called 'Hason Raja Samagra' (Complete Works of Hason Raja) was also published. The book contained 500 poems and songs. Some of the songs were written by the poet in Hindi.

Hason Raja's songs were always popular in Sylhet. But very soon they spread all over Bangladesh and beyond. In India's West Bengal, some eminent folk singers made Hason's songs popular. When you grow older, you will learn more about this great mystic poet through reading and listening to his songs.

Questions

- How many songs did Hason Raja compose?
- Describe Hason Raja's early life.
- Explain why Hason Raja gave up all his wealth?
- Interpret the term 'Pagla Hason Raja'.
- Why did the songs of Hason Raja become so popular in Bangladesh and beyond?

Suggested Answer:

- Hason Raja composed about a thousand songs.
- In his early life Hason had a luxurious life. He was born in a landlord's family and he had everything like money, comfort, and pleasure.
- Hason had a luxurious life in his childhood. However, at one stage everything became meaningless to him. The ideas of Creator, life, death etc.

became more important to him than his property. So he left all his meaningless wealth.

d. People love wealth but Hason Raja gave them away. He became crazy to learn more about the Creator, life, and mankind. Maybe he became crazy for God. Maybe this is why people called him Pagla Hason Raja.

e. Hason Raja was a mystic poet. His songs had love for God, human beings, and life. Perhaps it touched everyone's heart. So gradually they spread from Sylhet to whole Bangladesh and beyond.

Suggested Answer:

To : sarah@yahoo.com

Subject : Plan for winter vacation

Dear Sarah

How are you? It's almost the end of the year. My final exam has just finished and the school is closed. I have planned to do a lot of things during the vacation. At first I'm going to buy some new story books to read during the vacation. Then I'll be going to Dhaka with my parents to stay few days with my uncle's family. We will stay there for about a week. During that time we are going to visit many important places in Dhaka. My father is going to take me to the Lalbag Fort, the Ahsan Manzil and the Mirpur National Zoo. My mother is going to take me to a market where I will buy a new school bag for myself. We will also go to the Shishu Park and the National Museum if we have time.

What is your plan? Write soon.

Rivo : Alright then. I heard you acted in a play in the cultural program of school yesterday. How was it?

Dhrubo : The play is the very reason I'm embarrassed! I didn't perform that well.

Rivo : That's contrary to what I heard.

DhrubSo: What do you mean?

Rivo : My parents went to the program and they told me the audience was laughing and clapping very loudly at the end of your performance . I wasn't surprised. You're honestly a natural performer!

Dhrubo : I wasn't trying to be funny, though. I was supposed to act gloomy in the play.

Rivo : You put a twist to the character you were supposed to be. That's not at all bad.

Dhrubo : I haven't heard any reviews yet, but I hope you're right.

Rivo : Then I hope I'm right too. I'll see you tomorrow, yeah?

Dhrubo : Definitely! I have to go home now; see you soon.

Rivo : Have a safe trip.

Suggested Answer:

The Place I Like Most

A favourite place is a place with family, good weather and funny things to do. My village home is my favorite place for many reasons. My grandfather's family and my uncles live in the village. When I visit, my cousins and I laugh and play all day and night. I usually go there during the winter. My uncles and aunts take us to the village fair where we enjoy the rides. We devour juicy cakes and drink fresh date-juice. My family is fun to be with. The second reason is the weather. Instead of being hot and sweaty, it is always cool and moist. When I think about my visits, I can feel the crisp breeze in my hair. I can hear the soft sound of mist falling from leaves. I can feel the warm winter sun on my face. The third reason for my village home being my favorite place is fishing. We catch lots of fishes from the pond. Sometimes we catch fishes on hooks and sometimes we see uncles' fishing with the net. My grandmother cooks them. For all these reasons, my village home is my favorite place to go. It's good to visit a favorite place where one can make special memories and that is refreshing.
